LAST MEETING: Columbus Crew 1, New England 0
September 20, 2014 - Crew Stadium (Columbus, Ohio)

Federico Higuain's goal from a second-half freekick saw Columbus top the Revolution 1-0 at Crew Stadium. Revs goalkeeper Bobby Shuttleworth stopped a late Higuain penalty-kick attempt to keep the score within one. The away side's come-back efforts were thwarted by Columbus goalkeeper Steve Clark, who made a fingertip save to deny Charlie Davies a sure equalizer in the 87th minute. In the closing moments, Kelyn Rowe and Chris Tierney both saw long-distance attempts stopped by Clark. The Revs were forced to start without Jermaine Jones because of a foot injury, but he entered at halftime and helped change the pace of the game. However, the Revs still suffered the 1-0 loss and saw their six-game unbeaten run - and five-game winning streak - snapped.

TEAM NOTES

PLAYOFF PICTURE BEGINS TO BECOME CLEAR

None of the 10 teams in the Eastern Conference have clinched a playoff berth yet, while just the last-place Montreal Impact have been eliminated from postseason contention ... however, that could change this weekend with first-place D.C. United capable of clinching a return trip to the playoffs and the Chicago Fire in danger of being eliminate.

NEW ENGLAND'S SCENARIOS

While New England cannot clinch a postseason berth with a win on Saturday, it could all be all but assured of one heading into the club's October 11 trip to Montreal ... with 45 points, the Revs entered the week in second place in the East ... losses this week by Philadelphia (38 pts.) and Chicago (31 pts.), combined with a Revs victory would make it impossible for either club to catch the New England, who already have 45 points ... additionally, a Houston loss and a Revolution win would leave New England 12 points ahead of the Dynamo (36 pts.), heading into their final four matches ... that would mean that Houston would need to win their final four games and have the Revs lose their final three for the teams to finish the season level on points.

SECOND-BEST FINISH FORTHCOMING?

With the Revs in second place in the East, if the team is able maintain second or surpass D.C. United for first, it would be the first time New England finishes higher than third place in the East since 2007 when the club went 14-8-8 (50 pts.) to finish second and reach MLS Cup for a third consecutive season ... the Revs have only finished first or second in the East four times in club history: 2002 (first), 2005 (first), 2006 (second) and 2007 (second).

SEEKING TO AVOID A SWEEP

One week after completing a three-game season sweep of Sporting Kansas City, the Revs will look to avoid a similar sweep when they host the Crew Saturday ... Columbus won the first two games of the series this season, claiming a 2-1 win at Gillette Stadium on July 26 before snapping the Revs' most recent five-game winning streak on September 20 with a 1-0 win at Crew Stadium ... New England won all three meetings with Columbus last season, including a pair of games to close out the regular season that helped the Revs clinch their first playoff berth since 2009 ... all-time, the Revolution are 23-31-14 against the Crew ... the Revs have not lost three straight games against Columbus since the final two meetings in 2008 and the first of 2009 ... if New England wins Saturday, the club will have recorded at least one win against every Eastern Conference side this year with the lone exception of the New York Red Bulls, whom New England played only twice.

REVS STAY HOT HEADING INTO THE FINAL MONTH

In their last 10 games, the Revs have gone 7-2-1, taking 22 of a possible 30 points ... the Revs have collected almost half of their 45 points in the last 10 games after collecting 23 points in their first 20 games from a 7-11-2 mark ... in the last 10 games, the Revolution have MLS' second-best point total, bested only by LA's 7-1-2 mark for 23 points ... Columbus is right behind LA and New England though, as their 6-2-2 mark (20 points) is third-best in the league over the last 10 games.

WINNING WAYS

New England's 14 wins so far this season are tied with FC Dallas for fourth-most in MLS ... only Seattle (18 wins), the LA Galaxy (16 wins) and D.C. United (15 wins) have more victories than New England this year ... the team's 14 wins are equal to team's 14-win total in 2013, a year in which the club returned to the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2009 ... the Revolution's club record for wins is 17, set in 2005 ... the club twice had 15 wins (1996 and 1997), but both were in the league's shootout era.

MAKING A POINT OF IT

The Revolution enter Saturday night's game with 45 points from a 14-13-3 record ... with four games remaining on the schedule, the club can achieve a maximum of 57 points ... the Revs' club record for points in a season is 59, and while that record is safe for at least one more year, they are still well within reach of achieving the second-best season in club history ... last year, the Revs went 14-11-9 on the season for 51 points, establishing the second-high est point total in club history ... New England now needs six points from its final 12 available to match that record, while seven points would surpass it and give the club their second-best campaign ... since the start of MLS in 1996, only two teams have missed the playoffs when registering 50 points or more: San Jose (51 pts.) in 2013, and Columbus (52 pts.) in 2012.

REVS FINISH STRONG UNDER HEAPS

With four games remaining in the schedule and the Eastern Conference playoff picture still tightly-packed, the Revs will be looking to close out the season on a high note and Jay Heaps' teams have done just that ... last season, the Revs went 3-0-1 in their last four games, including a pair of wins over Columbus, to qualify for the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2009 ... in 2012, Heaps' first season as head coach when the team went 9-17-8 overall, the Revs were 2-2-0 in their last four, including back-to-back wins to close out the season.

FOUR TO GO

The Revs have four games remaining on their schedule, with two of the four - including Saturday's game - set for Gillette Stadium ... all four games will see New England take on Eastern Conference foes with the club hosting Columbus (October 4) and Toronto FC (October 25), and traveling to face Montreal (October 11) and Houston (October 16) ... so far this season, the Revs are:

- 4-4-0 against the clubs remaining on their schedule (2-1-0 at home, 2-3-0 on the road)
- 9-4-2 at home and 5-9-1 on the road, overall
- 10-10-1 against fellow Eastern Conference clubs

NGUYEN NAMED A PLAYER OF THE MONTH FINALIST

Lee Nguyen was nominated for September's MLS Etihad Airways Player of the Month award ... Nguyen played the full 90 minutes in all five of the Revs' games in September, scoring three goals and adding two assists while helping lead his club to a 4-1-0 record ... two of his goals were game-winners and his assist against Sporting Kansas City on Friday night helped to set up Jermaine Jones' game-winner in the 85th minute ... on the season, Nguyen has a team-best 13 goals (including and MLS-best seven game-winners) and five assists, which ties him for the team lead ... Nguyen is the second Revolution player to be nominated for player of the month this season, joining Diego Fagundez who was a finalist for the May award ... Nguyen was nominated alongside Columbus goalkeeper Steve Clark, LA midfielder Landon Donovan, Seattle forward Obafemi Martins and Portland midfielder Diego Valeri.

#MVLee

Lee Nguyen, who has emerged as a top contender for MLS MVP this season, is helping pace the Revs' recent resurgence ... in the last 10 games, New England has gone 7-2-1 and risen a sixth-place tie to second in the Eastern Conference standings ... in that stretch, Nguyen has scored seven goals and added four assists, extending his team lead in goals to a career-high 13, which includes a MLS-leading and club-record seven game-winning goals ... entering the season Nguyen had nine goals (including two game-winners) in 63 regular-season games ... other Nguyen highlights and achievements this season include:

- he is the league's highest-scoring midfielder
- his 13 goals tied Diego Fagundez's Revolution club record for goals scored by a midfielder (13 in 2013)
- he is tied with San Jose's Chris Wondolowski for the second-most goals by an American in MLS this season
- New England is 9-1-1 when Nguyen scores a goal, and 5-0-0 when he records an assist this season
- he is seventh in MLS, and second among midfielders, with 35 shots on goal
- he is fourth in the league with 70 fouls suffered

AN IMPORTANT FIRST FOR JONES

Jermaine Jones scored the first goal of his MLS career last Friday night at Sporting Kansas City, tallying the game-winning goal in the 85th minute ... he is the 14th different player to score a goal for the Revs this season ... Jones is also the third player this year to see his first goal in New England also be a late game-winner ... Kevin Alston scored the first goal of his MLS career (in his 123rd regular-season game) in the 68th minute of a 2-0 home win over Houston on April 12 ... two weeks later, Teal Bunbury scored the first goal of his Revolution career in second-half stoppage time against his former club - Sporting Kansas City - to help the Revs claim a 2-0 win.

JONES STARTS = REVS WIN

So far this season, when Jermaine Jones starts, the Revs have won and that equation held true against Sporting Kansas City as Jones played the full 90 minutes in a 3-2 Revs win ... despite being limited to 45 minutes in each of his previous two games because of a left foot injury that he suffered in the first half against Montreal on September 13, Jones was able to go the distance against SKC and provided the game-winning goal late ... in the four games that Jones has started this season, the Revs are 4-0-0 and the U.S. midfielder has a goal or an assist in each contest ... in six games as a member of the Revs, Jones has seven shots and has suffered eight fouls while committing five and collecting one yellow card.

THE CAPTAIN COLLECTS HIS FIRST

Captain Jose Goncalves scored his first goal of the season on Friday night, doubling the Revolution advantage in the 35th minute ... the third goal of his MLS career and his first from open play, Goncalves intercepted a pass inside his own defensive third and dribbled uncontested to the edge of the Kansas City penalty area before firing a low, left-footed shot just past the dive of Eric Kronberg and inside the right post ... the Revs are now 3-0-0 when Goncalves scores a goal in his career, with all three victories coming in New England road wins over Eastern Conference foes ... his first goal came in July 2013 against Saturday's opponent, the Columbus Crew, while his second came three months later in a 1-0 win away to Montreal.

A REAL GAME-WINNER

Lee Nguyen has been credited with the seven game-winning goals and one game-winning assist this season, leading New England to eight of its 14 victories this season ... his seven game-winning goals are the most in MLS this season and are tied for the fifth-best single-season tally in MLS history ... prior to this season, the Revolution club record for game-winning goals in a season was six, which was set by Taylor Twellman in 2005 ... Nguyen now has nine game-winning goals as a member of the Revolution, only Twellman (28), Joe-Max Moore (13), Steve Ralston (12) and Shalrie Joseph (10) have more for the club ... San Jose's Chris Wondolowski holds the MLS record for game-winning goals in a season with 11 (set in 2012) ... in the history of MLS, the only player other than Wondolowski to score more than seven game-winning goals in a single season is Carlos Ruiz, who had nine for the LA Galaxy in 2002.

DAVIES FINDING HIS FORM

During the last 10 games, the Revolution are 7-2-1, taking 22 of a possible 30 points to climb from a sixth-place tie in the East to second ... Davies has appeared in all 10 of those games, starting nine and coming off the bench to score the game-winning goal against Chicago on September 7 ... in total, Davies has three goals and three assists in those 10 contests ... prior to these 10 games, Davies had appeared in just eight games with the Revs since joining the club in August 2013, starting one, and did not have a shot in his 170 minutes of action.

ROWE'S PLAYING LIKE IT'S 2013

Kelyn Rowe had one of the most impressive sophomore seasons in MLS history last year, with seven goals and eight assists as a 21-year old ... however, his 2014 campaign was derailed early on when he missed almost two months of action because of hamstring injuries ... however, since July 26 - the first Revolution-Crew meeting of the season - Rowe turned back the clock ... in that span, he has scored four goals and added four of his team-high five assists to help the Revs post a 7-3-1 record while he has started all 11 matches ... after playing exclusively on the right wing or in central midfield the first part of the season, Rowe has started each of the last six games out to the left wing, helping the Revs take 15 of a possible 18 points in that time.

ROWE STEPPING UP IN THE FINAL THIRD

In 2013, Kelyn Rowe finished his second season as a pro by notching five goals and two assists in the final 11 games to help the Revs earn their first playoff berth in since 2009 ... this year, the sure-footed midfielder is once again finding the scoresheet in the final third of the season, scoring three goals and adding three assists in the past seven games with four games remaining in the season.

AND THEN THERE WAS ONE

Daigo Kobayashi is the only member of the Revolution who has appeared in all 30 of the club's regular-season matches this year, making 21 starts ... Diego Fagundez appeared in the Revs' first 29 matches of the season (starting 24) but he was an unused substitute last week against Sporting Kansas City ... Andrew Farrell leads the team with 29 regular-season starts and 2,610 minutes played, playing the full 90 minutes in every game except for the season opener against Houston, which he missed with an injury ... Kobayashi also played in two of the Revs' three U.S. Open Cup games this year ... he now leads the club with 32 appearances in all competitions.

FARRELL IS EVER PRESENT

Andrew Farrell missed the Revs' season-opening loss in Houston on March 8 because of a lingering leg injury from preseason, but he has been an ever-present presence in Jay Heaps' lineup since ... the second-year defender has played the full 90 minutes in each of the club's last 29 games, lining up at right back (19 games) and in central defense (10 games) ... his 2,610 minutes played this season is tied for the seventh most in MLS and are the third most among field players ... only Philadelphia's Raymon Gaddis (2,691 minutes played) and D.C.'s Bobby Boswell (2,685 minutes played) have played more minutes as a field player than Farrell has this season ... as a rookie in 2013, Farrell appeared in and started 32 of the Revs' 34 games, playing 2,813 minutes, the second-highest total on the team.

ANOTHER NEW BACK FOUR

Revolution head coach Jay Heaps was forced to deploy yet another new-look back line in the club's win over Sporting Kansas City last week ... with A.J. Soares sidelined with a calf injury, Heaps moved Andrew Farrell, who had started the previous 10 games at right back, into central defense alongside Jose Goncalves ... Kevin Alston made his first appearance since August 16 at right back and Chris Tierney returning to the starting lineup in place of Darrius Barnes at left back ... it was Tierney's first start since suffering a sprained left MCL on July 26 against Columbus, while Alston made his first start since August 16 against Portland and his first start at right back since the season opening defeat at Houston on March 8 ... prior to Friday's win, the Revs had started the back four unit of Darrius Barnes, Goncalves, Soares and Farrell in six consecutive games ... on the season, Heaps has used 10 different starting units in defense in MLS matches with seven players getting at least one start in the back:

Defender	Def. Appearances	Def. Starts	Defensive Positions Played
Andrew Farrell	29	29	RB, CB
A.J. Soares	26	26	CB
Jose Goncalves	23	23	CB
Chris Tierney	21	18	LB
Darrius Barnes	20	15	LB, RB
Kevin Alston	8	8	RB, LB
Stephen McCarthy	1	1	CB

Defensive groupings (LB, CB, CB, RB)	Matches	Record
Tierney, Goncalves, Soares, Farrell	9	2-6-1
Barnes, Goncalves, Soares, Farrell	6	5-1-0
Tierney, Soares, Farrell, Barnes	4	4-0-0
Alston, Goncalves, Soares, Farrell	4	2-1-1
Tierney, Goncalves, Farrell, Barnes	2	0-2-0
Tieney, Goncalves, Farrell, Alston	1	1-0-0
Tierney, Goncalves, Soares, Alston	1	0-1-0
Tierney, Soares, Farrell, Barnes	1	0-1-0
Tierney, McCarthy, Farrell, Barnes	1	0-1-0
Alston, Soares, Farrell, Barnes	1	0-0-1

SHUTTLEWORTH STANDING TALL

Bobby Shuttleworth has a firm grasp on his starting goalkeeper role this season, and enters Saturday's match at Columbus with a career-high 28 starts and appearances so far this year ... the sixth-year 'keeper is ranked seventh in MLS in goals against average with a 1.29 mark, and his 13 wins rank third in the league ... his seven shutouts are tied for fifth in MLS ... on the season, he has made 79 saves, including a pair of penalty kick saves, one of which was against Columbus two weeks ago ... in the Revs' club record books, Shuttleworth ranks second in almost every goalkeeping category behind Matt Reis, including appearances (71), starts (69), minutes played (6,344), wins (26), goals against average (1.35) and shutouts (20) ... he is currently in fourth place in saves (201), and became the fourth goalkeeper in club history with 200 or more saves on Friday night against Sporting Kansas City ... he is now just seven saves away from jumping past Adin Brown and Jeff Causey for the second most saves in club history.

TIERNEY RETURNS

Chris Tierney made his return to the starting lineup on Friday night against Sporting Kansas City, playing the full 90 minutes at left back ... this was his first start since spraining his left MCL against Columbus on July 26 ... he missed the next seven games and was an unused substitute against Montreal on Sept. 13 ... he returned to the field against the Crew on Sept. 20, coming on as a second-half substitute in place of Darrius Barnes ... Tierney, who has one goal and three assists in 20 regular-season appearances, was not booked in either of those appearances and benefitted from the league's Good Behavior Incentive, and is now two cautions shy of a one-game suspension for yellow-card accumulation.

HEAPS CLOSING IN ON 100

Jay Heaps is in his third season as the head coach of the Revolution and is approaching his 100th game in charge of the club ... named the head coach following the completion of the 2011 MLS campaign, Heaps has a 37-41-20 regular-season record with the club ... he is set to become the 30th coach in MLS history to lead a team for 100 or more games on October 11 when the club travels to face Montreal at Stade Saputo ... Heaps is the second-longest tenured coach in club history and ranks second to Steve Nicol in all coaching categories ... however, he would need to nearly six more full seasons to surpass Steve Nicol for most games coached ... Nicol, who served as interim head coach for two games in 1999 and was given the position permanently in 2002, replacing Fernando Clavijo, coached 301 regular-season games for the Revs departing the club after the 2011 season ... if Heaps leads the Revs back to the postseason this year, he will become the first coach in Revolution history other than Nicol to lead his team to the playoffs in more than one season ... Heaps is also MLS' sixth-longest tenured coach with his current club, behind Dominic Kinnear (Houston, 2006-present), Bruce Arena (LA, 2008-present), Peter Vernes (Kansas City, 2009-present), Sigi Schmid (Seattle, 2009-present) and Ben Olsen (D.C., 2010-present).

GOAL SCORING AND CONCEDED EVENLY SPLIT

Heading into the week, 11 of the 19 teams in MLS - including the Revolution - have a positive goal differential ... with 44 goals scored and 42 conceded, the Revs' +2 goal difference is tied with New York for the fourth-best in the Eastern Conference ... New England has evenly split its goal scoring between the two halves, scoring 22 first-half goals and 22 second-half goals ... the Revs have conceded 21 before the break and 21 after halftime this season.

REVS MAKING USE OF THEIR DEPTH

Of the 31 players currently on the Revolution roster, a number that includes forward Jerry Bengtson, who is currently on loan to Argentine club Belgrano, 25 have appeared in at least one game for the club this season ... the only players that have not seen any MLS action this season are midfielder Shalrie Joseph (who has been injured for much of the campaign), forward Andre Akpan (who was acquired from New York in mid-August), goalkeeper Larry Jackson, defender Jossimar Sanchez, goalkeeper Luis Soffner and midfielder Alec Sundly ... of that group, Sanchez, Soffner and Sundly spent the majority of the season on loan with the USL PRO's Rochester Rhinos and just returned to the club late last month following the end of the Rhinos' season.

NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION VS. COLUMBUS CREW

GETTING TO THE CORNER

The Revolution enter the week leading MLS in corner kicks with 187 on the season, seven more than second-place Philadelphia (180) ... on July 26 against Columbus, the Revs tied the club's single-game record with 15 corner kicks ... one of those 15 corner kicks led to New England's only goal in that game, as A.J. Soares headed a Kelyn Rowe corner in at the near post to tie the score at 1-1 - that goal is also the Revs' only goal scored off a corner kick this season ... Rowe has taken a team-high 83 corners in 23 games, including 61 in the last 11 games ... Chris Tierney (42) is second on the team, while Lee Nguyen (26) and Daigo Kobayashi (25) rank third and fourth ... Columbus forward Federico Higuain leads MLS with 129 corner kicks this season, while Rowe is eighth with 83.

NEUMANN IS REVS' GO-TO MAN OFF THE BENCH

Steve Neumann, who the Revolution selected fourth overall in the 2014 MLS SuperDraft, has been the Revs' - and MLS' - go-to man off the bench this season ... as a rookie, Neumann has made a league-high 19 substitute appearances this season, having come off the bench for all but two of his 19 league appearances ... after Neumann made his MLS debut as a substitute on April 5 at D.C. United, he appeared in 12 straight MLS games as a second-half sub between April 19 and July 16 ... he made his first career start at Dallas on July 19 ... his substitute appearance on September 3 against Sporting Kansas City was the longest of his young career, as he went 45 minutes in place of Jermaine Jones ... the Revs are 10-8-1 when Neumann comes off the bench compared to 0-2-0 when he starts and 4-3-2 when he does not play.

Player	Substitute Appearances

TWO WILL DO IT

Following the 3-2 win over Sporting Kansas City on September 26, the Revolution are now a perfect 13-0-0 when scoring two or more goals this season ... however, the club is just 1-13-3 when scoring one goal or fewer, with the lone win coming on August 23 when the Revs beat Chivas USA, 1-0 ... last week's win was New England's second when allowing two or more goals ... they are 2-10-0 in the 12 games in which they have conceded twice or more.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A RESULT MAKES

Below is a comparison of the team's average statistics in its wins, losses and draws:

	Wins	Losses	Draws
Number	14	13	3
Goals Per Game	2.60	0.37	0.67
Goals Allowed Per Game	0.78	2.23	0.67
Shots Per Game	13.4	14.7	12
Shots Allowed Per Game	12.5	13.2	12
Shots on Goal Per Game	6.4	4.7	3.7
Shots on Goal Allowed Per Game	3.4	5.7	4.3

The win over Sporting Kansas City on September 26 was the first time this season in which the Revs had won a game in which the opposition had more shots and shots on goal.

DRAWN NOT ADDING UP

With three draws through 30 games this season, the Revs could challenge the league's all-time low mark for draws in a 34-game season ... in 2012, Colorado set the MLS record for fewest draws in a 34-game season with four ... this year, both New England and Seattle have three draws through Week 29 of the MLS season ... the MLS record for fewest draws in a season was two, however those were set in either 28-game or shortened seasons: New England (2 in 2002 in 28 games), MetroStars (2 in 2002 in 28 games), D.C. United (2 in 2001 in 26 games) and Tampa Bay (2 in 2001 in 27 games).

ATTENDANCE RISING AHEAD OF LEAGUE PACE

With two home games remaining this season, the Revolution's attendance is pacing far ahead of 2013's attendance ... through 15 home games, the club has increased its attendance by 11.3 percent ... the Revs average 15,178 fans at Gillette Stadium this year - almost 2,000 fans per game ahead of the club's average of 13,237 through 15 games in 2013 ... this season, the Revs claim MLS' fourth-highest attendance growth rate so far, behind Toronto FC (21.39%),

D.C. United (20.77%) and San Jose (18.93%, which includes a match at Levi's Stadium_ through the same number of home games a year ago ... on the season, MLS is averaging a 2.83 percent growth in attendance through the same number of games.

GOALSCORING HAS GONE LOCAL

Local sources have played a major role in the Revs' offensive success this season with New England products combining for nine goals and 11 assists through 30 games ... head coach Jay Heaps, who is a local product himself having been raised in Longmeadow, Mass., has relied on four players with New England roots this season:

Goals: 20 percent (nine-of-44)

Diego Fagundez (Leominster, Mass)	5
Charlie Davies (Manchester, N.H.)	3
Chris Tierney (Wellesley, Mass.)	1

Assists: 28 percent (11-of-40)

Diego Fagundez	4
Chris Tierney	3
Charlie Davies	3
Scott Caldwell (Braintree, Mass.)	1

YES, FAGUNDEZ IS STILL A TEENAGER

Diego Fagundez, who turned 19 on Feb. 14, is already in his fourth season with the Revolution ... he had a career year in 2013, scoring 13 goals (to tie for fifth in MLS) to lead the club in scoring while adding seven assists... the Leominster, Mass., product was also voted team MVP ... his 13 goals last season all came from the run of play, and marked the highest season goal total for a teenager in MLS history ... the only teenager in MLS history to score 10 or more goals in one season, Fagundez now has 22 goals in his MLS career and holds the league record for goal scoring by a teenager:

Rank	Player	Goals as a Teenager
1.	Diego Fagundez	22
2.	Eddie Gaven	16
3.	Jozy Altidore	15
4.	Freddy Adu	12
5.	Andy Najjar	10

VOTING OPEN NOW FOR REVOLUTION 2014 MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

Voting is now open for the 2014 New England Revolution Santander Most Valuable Player, which will be selected by fan vote for the fifth straight season ... fans who vote for the MVP will also have the opportunity to enter a sweepstakes to win a pair of cleats signed by the club's 2014 MVP after entering their votes ... all players that have appeared in at least 15 of the club's 30 regular season games to this point are eligible to win the award and fans are asked to vote for their first, second and third choices for MVP ... voting will remain open until 10 p.m. ET on Saturday, October 11 ... the 2014 Revolution team award winners - including the Santander Most Valuable Player - will be announced on Saturday, October 25, in a pregame ceremony before the Revs face Toronto FC in the team's 2014 home finale.

REVS TO HIT THE RUNWAY TO SUPPORT THE ELLIE FUND

Soccer and fashion will collide on Wednesday, October 8, when Darrius Barnes, Teal Bunbury, Charlie Davies, Jermaine Jones, Daigo Kobayashi, Lee Nguyen and Kelyn Rowe along with their wives and girlfriends and Revolution sideline reporter Jessie Coffield, will model looks from Boden's Winter line as part of Boston Fashion Week ... the event, which will be held in Boston at BOND at The Langham Boston (250 Franklin Street), will help to raise money for the Ellie Fund in recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness month ... tickets to the 21+ event, which will kick off at 7:30 p.m., can be purchased online for $25, while $50 VIP tickets are also available and include early admission, access to a Grey Goose and St. Germain cocktail reception and a sweet treat ... a limited amount of tickets will be available at the door the night of the event.

JOIN ALSTON. REVS AND LIGHT THE NIGHT FOR LLS

To help support research and the on-going race for a cure for blood cancers, the Revolution is joining the greater New England community at the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's annual Boston Light the Night Walk at 5 p.m. on Thursday, October 9, on the historic Boston Common (Charles St., Boston, Mass.) ... Kevin Alston will be joined by Revs staff on the Revolution's team, which will be showcased with a special banner at the walk ... the team's top fan fundraisers will be eligible to win prize packages including tickets in the Putnam Club, pregame field passes or a VIP player meet & greet ... the top fundraiser will also be honored in a pregame ceremony tonight ... the Revolution Charitable Foundation will match the first $2,500 in donations received by the team's walkers ... the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society is Alston's charity of choice as he joins millions in the fight against blood cancers ... in April 2013, Alston was diagnosed with chronic myelogenous leukemia (CML), a rare but treatable form of leukemia ... while CML does not yet have a cure, Alston has managed his health and has returned to the field.

FLAG OF NEW ENGLAND

Long before the sewing of the American flag as we know it -- before there were the United States, and hundreds of years before its slightly-altered stars and stripes emerged on the Revolution club badge -- a flag of a different design was flown proudly in the early colonies that now comprise New England.

Historic Revolutionary War artist John Trumbull's depiction of the Battle of Bunker Hill featured a red flag with a green pine tree, which often served as a representation of the New England colonies. While historians argue the exact dates of origin of this early flag, over time, the design stood out as a symbol of honor for the territory.

It was a reflection of unification. It's flown as an homage to the region's pride and passion.

No group has more pride or passion than Revolution supporters, who have flown the flag of New England in Gillette Stadium, and the former Foxboro Stadium, since the club's inception in 1996.

With such a deep connection to both club and country on many different levels, the flag of New England now adorns the Revolution's uniforms -- both as testament to the region's revolutionary history, and as a visual representation of the club's supporters.

Situated on the back of the jersey, at the base of the neck -- a position reserved for the most meaningful representations on soccer jerseys -- the flag of New England now lives in honor on the back of every New England Revolution jersey.

Sitting above the players' last names, the Revolution and supporters alike are reminded that the club holds true to its community's historic roots in reverence, and continues to proudly represent the historic region of New England, while symbolically bringing the supporters onto the field, each and every game.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT THE REVS

"I think right now, New England is the scariest prospect in the Eastern Conference."

– Brian Dunseth on NBC Sports Network (Sept. 12, 2014)

"New England's the team to be scared of right now, if you're in the Eastern Conference ... going in to the playoffs, if I had to bet, I would bet on New England."

– Andrew Wiebe, Extra Time Podcast (mlssoccer.com), Sept. 29, 2014

"Everything is functioning. Jermaine Jones hasn't started every game, hasn't played all of the games but everybody around him, that injection of Jermaine Jones has helped everybody around him, individually the players are playing better. Lee Nguyen, Kelyn Rowe, those types of players, they've raised their game. This was a team that was already exciting individually but they needed some bite, they needed some personality and I think that's what Jermaine Jones has done."

– Alexi Lalas, ESPN FC TV (Sept. 29, 2014)

"The calls are growing louder for (Lee) Nguyen to join the USMNT. And after a month like Nguyen had in September -- three goals and two assists, often of the spectacular variety -- he's become a bona fide MLS star. And those numbers came across four Revs victories because as Lee Nguyen goes, so go the Revolution."

– MLSSoccer.com, Player of the Month Nominees (Sept. 29, 2014)
